Restaurant Management Group Names Two Top Supervisors For Each Restaurant Brand

KINGSPORT, TN. – Restaurant Management Group (RMG) has named its top Supervisors of the Year for the Little Caesars® Pizza and Hardee's® franchise restaurants the company operates across eight states.

RMG selected Keith Treadway for the Little Caesars award and Todd Winstead for its Hardee's restaurants. The awards for each were based on criteria that included guest comments, financial controls, safety, employee turnover, inspection scores and quality assurance. Both were named at a recent company-wide recognition event.

As regional director of operations, Treadway is responsible for 17 Little Caesars locations in eastern Tennessee and southwest Virginia. He joined RMG in 2006 with its purchase of 16 local Little Caesars franchise locations. He has been involved with the Little Caesars brand for 24 years. RMG currently operates 34 Little Caesars locations throughout Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

Treadway lives in Hampton and is married with a son and stepdaughter. He enjoys NASCAR, his family and the family's two dogs in his spare time.

Winstead is responsible for nine Hardee's locations in the Tri-Cities area. He joined Hardee's in 1992 and has been with RMG since the company's creation in 2000. Winstead previously was recognized for three consecutive years (2001-2003) as RMG's restaurant General Manager of the Year as well as having the Store of the Year. He was promoted to district manager in 2004. RMG operates 42 Hardee's restaurants across the region as well as in West Virginia, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Winstead lives in Morristown and is married with three children. He enjoys camping and watching his children play sports in his spare time

RMG is headquartered here. To learn more about the company visit www.rmgrestaurants.com.
